

11,9
percent

The value of homes in SA's residential property market rose by 11,9% y/y in July, down from 13,2% in June, according to Absa's house price index. The value of small houses, however, rose by a strong 33,6%, from 31,6% in the previous month.

412
rand

The average value of cash withdrawn during July was R412 per withdrawal, a 9,1% y/y increase, according to the Spark Cash Index. During the soccer World Cup, international withdrawal volumes rose by 75%, comprising 7% of all transactions.

20
percent

Vehicle sales in July rose by a healthy 20% y/y. Passenger car sales, supported by higher consumer confidence, low interest rates and income growth, increased by 32,4%. Commercial car sales remain weak.